NEWS RELEASE

California Board of Accountancy Seeks Chief of Enforcement

The California Board of Accountancy (CBA) is recruiting for its next Chief of Enforcement.

The Chief of Enforcement plays an integral role in the creation/influence of policy affecting not only the Enforcement Division, but the CBA as a whole, and serves as a principal advisor to the Executive Officer and enforcement-related consumer protection activities at the CBA.

“This is a wonderful opportunity for an individual with excellent leadership and management skills, outstanding character, and a commitment to protecting consumers,” said CBA Executive Officer, Patti Bowers. “This is an exciting time at the CBA, and the new Chief of Enforcement will have an important role in leading our Enforcement Division.”

###

Created by statute in 1901, the CBA’s mandate requires that protection of the public shall be its highest priority in exercising licensing, regulatory, and disciplinary functions. The CBA currently regulates more than 90,000 licensees, the largest group of licensed accounting professionals in the nation, including individuals, partnerships, and corporations.
