KATRINA L. SALAZAR, CPA, REAPPOINTED TO THE CALIFORNIA BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

SACRAMENTO – The California Board of Accountancy (CBA) is pleased to announce the reappointment of Katrina L. Salazar, CPA, by Governor Gavin Newsom.

This is the second reappointment for Ms. Salazar, who was initially appointed to the CBA in December 2012 by Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr. In her tenure on the CBA, she has served as President, Vice-President, and Secretary/Treasurer. Ms. Salazar is currently Chief Financial Officer for the California Correctional Peace Officers Association, a position she has held since 2015. She has also served as the Executive Director of the Rotary Club of Sacramento, Chief Financial Officer at the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges and the American Red Cross Sacramento Sierra Chapter. Ms. Salazar previously held several positions in public accounting, including senior audit manager for Reznick Group, and has been an adjunct accounting professor for the Los Rios Community College District.

Ms. Salazar is Pacific Regional Director for the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy, and a member of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Ms. Salazar received a Master of Business Administration degree from Drexel University.

The CBA is comprised of eight members of the public, and seven members who are certified public accountants (CPA). Ms. Salazar fills one CPA seat. Her term expires November 26, 2023.

###

Created by statute in 1901, the CBA's mandate requires that protection of the public shall be its highest priority in exercising licensing, regulatory, and disciplinary functions. The CBA currently regulates more than 108,000 licensees, the largest group of licensed accounting professionals in the nation, including individuals, partnerships, and corporations.
